

Cass Achieves Efficiency First(R) Vendor Solution Certification for Telecom Management

12/12/17

Cass clients derive distinct value from their engagement, citing cost and FTE savings as well as process improvement and increased visibility

ST. LOUIS, MO and INDIANAPOLIS, IN -- (Marketwired) -- 12/12/17 -- Cass Information Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ: CASS), a leading provider of integrated information and payment management solutions, achieved its Efficiency First® Vendor Solution Certification for Telecom Management from AOTMP, a global information, research and advisory firm for telecom management best practices and industry standards.

The Cass telecom management solution was evaluated through a multi-phase process involving input from Cass's global enterprise customers and utilizing AOTMP's highly regarded Efficiency First® Vendor Solution Certification Framework. AOTMP's Efficiency First certification program drives standards for technical, financial and operational efficiency across enterprise fixed and mobile telecommunications environments.

As part of the certification process, Cass clients were asked to provide insight into the benefits delivered through Cass services. Cass clients specifically cited audit and optimization cost savings as distinct financial benefits received through their engagement. Operational benefits cited included improved processes, reduction in FTE requirements, reduction in invoice process cycle times, and improved visibility of inventory and invoice information.

"This certification validates Cass's alignment with Efficiency First® Framework performance principles supporting fixed and mobile telecom management, as well as its commitment in delivering exceptional results for its customers," states Timothy C. Colwell, SVP, Efficiency First® Adoption. "We commend Cass on its certification and are excited for its continued growth in the global TEM/EMM market."

"We believe participation in rigorous, third-party evaluations and exposure to industry benchmarks benefit both Cass and our global clients," commented Gary Langfitt, president, expense management, Cass. "The Efficiency First Solution framework and process align well with our continuous improvement methodologies at Cass."
