Revenue declined in 2Q2023 as compared to 1Q2023 primarily a result of a decline in interest-earning assets due to declining freight rates and deposits.

Technology initiatives designed to improve operational efficiency and facilitate client acquisition and growth are driving expenses higher and short-term earnings lower while running duplicate production environments.
REVENUE & EXPENSES
Despite a decline in transportation dollar volumes which led to a lower average balance of payments in advance of funding, financial fees were up over the same period last year due to the increase in short-term interest rates.

Transportation dollar volumes declined due to lower fuel costs and overall freight rates.
The change quarter to quarter is generally correlated to transportation and facility invoice volumes, although Cass has other processing fee revenue tied to CassPay and Cass Commercial Bank.

Processing fees increased as compared to 2Q 2022 due to the increase in facility invoice volumes. The Company has experienced recent success in winning facility clients with high transaction volumes.
The increase in short-term interest rates has had a positive impact on net interest income and margin, jumping from 2.54% during 2Q 2022 up to 3.25% in 2Q 2023. The Company anticipates further net interest margin improvement in future quarters as the Company’s interest-earning assets, funded by 75.9% noninterest bearing sources, continue to re-price to current market interest rates.

Average interest-earning assets have declined the first six months of 2023 as a result of a decrease in payment float generated from transportation clients due to a decline in freight rates and a decrease in deposit balances generated from Bank clients.
OPERATING EXPENSE

- Salaries and commissions as well as other benefits have increased due to average FTEs being up 10.9% as compared to 2Q 2022, primarily due to technology initiatives.
- Despite the pension plan being frozen resulting in no service cost, expense is up due to the accounting impact of the decline in plan assets during 2022.
- Other operating expenses are also elevated as Cass invests in, and transitions to, improved technology which Cass anticipates will result in improved operating leverage beginning in late 2023.

The yield on investment securities has been increasing due to the increase in short-term interest rates. Cass maintains a high-quality investment portfolio as detailed on the following slide. The decline during 2Q 2023 was due to maturities, amortization and the sale of $50 million of short-term U.S. Treasury securities.
All investment securities are classified as available-for-sale. The overall weighted-average repricing term is 4.1 years.

All of the $106.9 million of U.S. Treasury bonds mature by July 31, 2024.

The asset-backed securities are backed by student loans in the FFELP program with a minimum 97% guaranty by the U.S. Department of Education. These securities have long maturities but are floating rate assets.

All of the corporate securities are investment grade “A” or higher. Of the total portfolio of $101.2 million, $55.5 million are floating rate.

The mortgage-backed securities portfolio has an estimated average life of 5.2 years.

99% of the municipal securities are an investment grade of “A” or higher.
For 2Q 2023, 75.9% of average funding was non-interest bearing, a strategic advantage in current rate environment.

The Company has experienced deposit attrition as larger commercial clients moved their funds to higher interest rate alternatives outside of Cass Commercial Bank.

Payment float has declined due to lower fuel costs and overall freight rates.
